February 2, 2024

WHEREAS, the Lorain County Board of Commissioners have previously approved funding of stormwater projects using ARPA; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioners have adopted a General Plan of Drainage; and

WHEREAS, the Lorain County Engineer has prepared plans to improve the drainage; and

WHEREAS, Lorain County and/or County Engineer have agreed to maintain the improvement and grant the county the ability to regularly inspect and if necessary restore improvements

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Lorain County Board of Commissioners that the Board schedule a public hearing on March 5, 2024 where the Board may take action on the amendment of the Lorain County General Plan of Drainage to include the improvement of constructing a drainageway to better the function of stormwater control measures and protect land and improvements at Gott Ditch Restoration, Penfield Township, finding that it is necessary for the preservation and promotion of the public health and welfare and that there will be no assessments charged for the construction and ongoing maintenance of the improvement in accordance with Ohio Revised Code 6117.06.
